

IMPORTANT NOTICE

All visa-related works have temporarily suspended at the Consulate General of the Republic of Korea in Wuhan, China from 25 Jan 2020

Due to the outbreak of pneumonia infection caused by the new coronavirus first identified in Wuhan, China, the Consulate General of the Republic of Korea in Wuhan temporarily suspends all visa-related works. The resuming date is not confirmed yet and will be announced once it's confirmed. Please be aware that this temporary shutdown can be prolonged.

South Korea Government will send a chartered flight to Wuhan to bring its citizens back home. Around 700 Korean citizens in the city of Wuhan have applied for boarding as of 28 Jan 2020, and the Korean government is negotiating flight schedule with the Chinese authorities. Due to the Chinese government's policy, Chinese citizens including legal family members of Korean citizens are not allowed to take the Korean Government's chartered flight.
