

Temporary suspension of new visa issuance

Due to the rapidly increasing number of new Covid19 infected cases, France has been newly added on the country list where the Korean Embassies have temporarily suspended new visa issuances.

Country	Suspension of new visa issuance
Philippines	From July 2020
Nepal	From October 2020
United Kingdom	From December 2020
South Africa	From December 2020
France	From March 2020

This measure is subject to change depends on each country's local Covid19 circumstances.

Those who currently in one of the above-listed countries and seeking to apply for a long-term Korean visa need to consider the possibility of visa application filing in another nearby country's Korean embassy. Please ensure to check the latest notice of the respective Korean Embassy before you proceed further for actual application filing.
